DISCLAIMER: This must be signed before an application can be accepted:

1. All members who attend meetings and / or activities do so entirely at their own risk.
2. The Braintree & District Outdoor Pursuits Club, its officers and/or activities organisers accept no responsibility for any injury, including injuries leading to death, loss or damage to person, property, or in the case of minors, to parents or guardians in addition. The club insurance covers members against public liability whilst attending group meetings and club activities. Details and extent of cover are available from the club Secretary.
3. Outdoor activities can be dangerous. Camp Sites & Bunk Barns are not guaranteed as secure. Therefore members are strongly advised to effect insurance to cover both themselves and their property whilst attending group meetings and any activities.
